

Welcome to your new school! We would like you to share some things 'All About You!' This will help all your teachers at HMS learn about you.

LO: I can create a moodboard which shares all the things that make me unique.

Please have a go at creating an inspiring moodboard, on A4 or A3 paper, which tells your new teachers 'All About You.'

WAGOLL
Some good examples

Success Criteria.

- I am able to collect and attach pictures which reflect my interests and personality
- I can collect and attach small objects, to my board, which say something about me
- I can create an interesting composition, on my board, with all the things I have found.

Definition: A moodboard is a set of creative ideas, pictures and collections of found materials that are important to you.