Historical

The Book Thief by Markus Zusak
It is 1939. Death has never been busier, and will be busier still. By her brother's graveside, Liesel's life is changed when she picks up an object, partially hidden in the snow. It is The Gravedigger's Handbook and it is her first act of book thievery. But these are dangerous times and Liesel's world is both opened up, and closed down.

Classic/Dystopian

Animal Farm by George Orwell
When the downtrodden animals of Manor Farm overthrow their master Mr Jones and take over the farm themselves, they imagine it is the beginning of a life of freedom and equality. But soon the animals discover that they are not all as equal as they thought. Orwell's chilling 'fairy story' is a timeless and devastating satire of idealism betrayed by power and corruption.

World politics

Boy 87 by Ele Fountain
Shif is just an ordinary boy who likes chess, maths and racing his best friend home from school. But one day, soldiers with guns come to his door - and he knows that he is no longer safe. Boy 87 is a gripping, uplifting tale of one boy's struggle for survival.

Dystopian

The Hunger Games by Suzanne Collins
Sixteen-year-old Katniss Everdeen regards it as a death sentence when she is selected to represent her district in the annual Hunger Games, a fight to the death on live TV. But Katniss has been close to death before and survival, for her, is second nature.

World Politics/Crisis

The Boy at the Back of the Class by Onjali Rauf
